

Meeting Announcement
Historic Preservation Commission
Wednesday October 19, 2016

The Mount Vernon Historic Preservation Commission will meet with representatives from Cornell College and the architects for the design of the new Science Center building on Wednesday, October 19, 2016 at 6:30 p.m. at the Cole Library.

The purpose of the meeting is for the architects to present their plans for the new Science Center building to the Commission and to answer questions regarding that plan.

This is not a Commission business meeting; therefore, no agenda is set forth.